

Women in Engineering

Join the Women in Engineering group for a pre-concert lunch discussion with composer Melinda Wagner

Saturday, March 30, 2013

12:00 PM

Ciminelli Formal Lounge, at the Eastman Student Center

To follow: concert at Kilbourn Hall
2:00 PM

Melinda Wagner was born in Philadelphia and received graduate degrees in Music Composition from the University of Chicago and the University of Pennsylvania. Her teachers included Richard Wernick, George Crumb, Shulamit Ran, and Jay Reise.

Wagner's Concerto for Flute, Strings, and Percussion was awarded the 1999 Pulitzer Prize.

Melinda Wagner has taught at the University of Pennsylvania, Swarthmore College, Syracuse University, and Hunter College. She has lectured at many schools including Yale, Cornell, Juilliard, and Mannes. Ms. Wagner has served as Composer-in-Residence at the University of Texas (Austin) and at the Bravo! Vail Valley Music Festival. She lives in New Jersey with her husband, percussionist James Saporito, and their children.

Ms. Wagner was invited as The Women in Music Festival guest composer this year. The Festival <http://www.esm.rochester.edu/wmf> takes place March 24-30, 2013.

RSVP by March 20th at wieroc@gmail.com or contact Cristina Canavesi for details
<http://blogs.rochester.edu/wie>